By THOMAS DANFORTH Esqs

President of the Province of Myne, with the Consent of the Council Assembled in York; Octob. 1682.

WEE having taken into our serious Consideration the great Favour of God, manifested towards his People in this Province; In special, in that He hath been graciously pleased to crown this Year with his Goodness, blessing us with a more plentiful Harvest, than of late Years we have had experience of; Continuing to us Dayes of Peace, & lengthening out our Tranquility in respect of those Liberties, both Civil & Sacred, which (by His Goodness) we still enjoy; Preserving us from those Contagious and Epidemical Diseases, which our Sins have deserved, and which we our selves have sometimes been sorrowful under; And also in the gracious Preservation of the honoured Messengers, sent by the [illegible] sachusets Colony to wait upon His Majesty, from the Dangers [illegible] Seas, and for their safe Arrival in England:

Upon these and the like Considerations
Appoint the three and twentieth day of [illegible]
Observed as a Day of Publick & [illegible] throughout this Colony. [illegible] of this Province. [illegible]
found amor[illegible]
Exhortin[illegible]
Lord f[illegible]